Coach Jim Haas

DEDICATION

We dedicate our '52, annual to our Coach, Jim Haas. The help and understanding he has given our ball players for the past six years has enabled Augusta sports to climb the ladder to the rank we now hold. A coach that has such an understanding and the personality to praise the boys when a game was lost, and can say, "well done boys we'll do better next time," deserves high honors from all of us.

Best of luck to you, Jim Haas.

- I, Marie Warner will and bequeath my future marriage to Elaine Zillmer.
- I, Richard Warner will and bequeath my build for playing football to Jimmy Livermore.
- I, Vivian Wiese will and bequeath nothing to nobody--cause I need everything.
- I, Gordon Zank will and bequeath my run to school to Eleanor Sperber.
- I, Helen Zebarth will and bequeath my neatness to the boys dressing room.
- I, Mr. Bichler, will and bequeath this fearless Class of '52 to the cruel, cruel world.

We, the Class of '52, will and bequeath our ambition, benevolence, determination, elegance, humanitarianism, intelligence, integrity, ingenuity, philoprogenitiveness, progressiveness, and the ability to look up these words to anyone who has the patience and curiosity.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the latest edition of "A Peep into the Future" magazine came out this month, I found the entire magazine was based on the doings of the Graduates of 1952.

FRANK KUEHN, one of the many graduates who really won fame, has stepped right into Joe Dimaggio's shoes, size 12. One day Frank suddenly became curious as to the outcome of his fellow graduates and decided to take a long trip to investigate further. This story is the result of his trip.

Seeing I was loaded with money after my team had won the World and Moon Series and any other Series there are, I decided to start my journey by sailing 'the aqua pacific' to Hawaii. I say 'aqua pacific' because it has recently been changed under the influence of Congresswoman AUDREY ROTH'S Macholz who has argued for the past ten years that it is not blue, but aqua.

As I entered the fair city of Hula Hula Hoola Hula Hula Hoola Mula I was startled by someone jumping on my shoulders and asking quietly, "Would you be interested in taking hula lessons from the LOIS ERDMAN?" When I looked up, I was surprised to see CARL KUHN. After I said no, Carl jumped down and said that he was working for a raise so that he could start a hula business of his own.

Though it isn't very likely I'd go to Australia, I did. In Augusta, South Australia, I stopped for gas and who came to wait on me but GENE RAHL, known in the old days as 'Buzz.' We talked over old times and 'Buzz' said his job at the station was to clean the old bugs off car windows. I bid him farewell and continued on my journey to Borneo. There I saw DALE SCHWOCH SCHWOCH plowing land with oxen. He told me he had caught two elephants which he would send home to EUGENE SCHROEDER who owns a zoo. It seems Eugene is low on elephants, so if any of you good people have an elephant or two, please send them to Eugene. . . . C. O. D.

My next stop was Landshut, Germany. There I met BARBARA NEWTON and her General husband, Mouse. Barb told me that she is teaching all their little mice to twirl.

I read in the newspaper that JOANNE M. JOHNSON was in Paris designing a new girdle that is easier to get into, and is available to men, too. When I stopped in Paris to visit Jo I found she was on a tour of the world with Jimmy Lynch and his Death Dodgers. I did talk to her assistant MARIE DOBRENZ though who was posing for pictures to advertise the new terrific girdle.

In Dunkirk, New York, that is, I found GORDON ZANK still making dough in one of his factories. His specialty is holeless donuts. I inquired if he had seen any of our graduating class since that certain day in May, 1952. He told me that JOYCE TUMM, stenographer at GARY WARNER'S Art Institute, has devised a new version of shorthand. . . anyone can read it. Gary, the latest Rembrandt, is a cheesecake artist. His latest model is ARLENE ERDMAN.

Following Gordy's directions, I arrived at the "Bring 'Em in Breathing" hospital still breathing. My old classmate CORA MARIE DuSHONG told me that she was in trouble because she got caught letting one of the nurses in at five in the morning. I was surprised to find that nurse was MARILYN SHEFCHIK who was out with a certain fellow named Wayne.

While driving along in my car, I noticed a poster of "Join the Wafs" and on it a picture of JOYCE NELSON with her hair in a horsetail.

It was in November that I stopped at Johnson, Kentucky to find the outcome of the recent election. After the votes were counted, it was announced that ALICE RINGHAND is now first woman president of the United States. Rumor has it that ZANE LOWMAN, her right man, had stuffed the ballot box.

In Rosebud, Missouri, I met CHARLOTTE SHEDLER on the street. She finds that cleaning Glads nowadays is more profitable than teaching. The reason could have been that she hipped her way into teaching.

In Rising Star, Texas, I found ROBERT GREGOR, a thriving printer. He made his first million by printing "SEE" pamphlets for his children.

Reading the "Know It All" Journal, I saw a familiar name in the want ad column. DONALD REINEKE, well known for his promptness, wants to trade in his forty year old wife for two twenties. At the bottom of the page I saw the "Shrunk Shrimps" were playing the "Stretchy Britches." Coach of the "Stretchy Britches" was none other than BOB SCHROEDER. VIVIAN WIESE teaches Bob all the plays that he transfers to his marvelous team. That's what it said anyway. I decided I better get going, so I went.

As I was leaving I saw a billboard with a picture of ROBERTA DELL HASKINS on it. Under the picture it read "The Worlds Most Nervous Tight Rope Walker." After I took in her act in Como, Colorado, I went to her tent and she briefed me on her companions of long ago. She told me DONNA BALL owns a beauty Salon that specializes in spit curls for bald headed women. She also told me that GRACE JASKOWSKI is traveling on an ocean liner, setting in permanent waves.

After I found two flat tires on my car, I hailed a taxi back to my hotel. The driver was none other than MURIEL KIRKHAM. She told me her husband, Dick, was short of drivers, so she was helping out. Muriel told me that PHYLLIS MASON La Ida was working on an experiment to make short people grow tall. She calls it "Helpum Upum."

I paid the driver and stepped to the curb in time to bump into my old pal "Grizz." WAYNE SHONG to you. Wayne told me he is bookkeeper for a Mrs. Lee. He took me to the office, and I found Mrs. Lee to be none other than JoANN REINEKE. We chewed the fat for a spell and then I left for Utah.

In Teasdale, I became so hungry I had to stop at the nearest restaurant I came to. It was called "I Dare You," and I was daring so I entered. I knew I had seen the waiter somewhere before, but where was it? As soon as I saw his levis, the name LAWRENCE AYRES popped into my head. I called "Ole" over and he told me his chief cook and bottle washer was Ruth Huff.

Leaving the restaruant I was surprised to see it was dusk already. I noticed a brilliant sign across the street flashing "JAENKE'S Gypsy Joint." Stop at the place where EDITH will tell you all you want to know.

Leaving Teasdale I was cruising along nicely in my old '36' when all of a sudden. Bang! A blowout! I went to the nearest form house and was surprised to see it was owned by RICHARD BARTLETT. While fixing the flat, he told me he saw DEAN HALDEMAN when he was out west. Dean is now a construction engineer. His favorite hobby is roller skating for pennies.

In a little spot on the edge of town I decided it was time I had a hair cut. Strolling in, I plopped down in the chair and leaned back. I guess I dozed off because when I came to, well.... Can you see me with a butch haircut? Seeing the barber I quieted down. It was DICK STEINKE. Dick, being full of news, told me MARIE WARNER and her husband, Al, were raising hens that lay triplets. Three eggs at a time, I guess.

He told me DELORIS ANDERSON and Jerry run the "Black as soot" laundry in town. I inquired about Marie's brother, and Dick said RICHARD WARNER is bellboy at one of RACHEL SMITH'S hotels, she has a string of them. I left Dick who was still talking and continued on my journey.

Entering the post office in Peek-a-boo, Idaho. I heard a familiar voice called "Red." I turned and there was VALIENT HADORN. "Bud" told me that he read about my fame and wished he was doing something besides farming. He said he saw HELEN ZEBARTH at a circus the other day training lions. I wonder if the farm was getting "Bud" down.

At Grants Pass, Oregon, I stopped to buy some aspirins at "Cheatum" drug store. I glanced at some Johnson's Baby Powder, when I saw a familiar face on the cans, JOAN JOHNSON, that's who it was! My old Classmate.

Being out west I knew I shouldn't be surprised to see DOROTHY HALL and DAYLE BAUCH, but I was. They said they were planning a trip to the moon in a rocket, but didn't know if they

THORP TIPS BEAVERS 13-7

Thorp scored in the first half and led 6-0. In the second half Frank Kuehn raced 80 yds. to score. From there the Beavers were in control until the closing minutes when a pass was intercepted and run back 93 yds. for a touchdown. The team was handicapped because of the loss of Wayne Shong, Veteran Fullback, who suffered an ankle injury in practice.

AUGUSTA TOPPLES WHITEHALL

With Shong back in the lines the Beavers started to roll. Shong scored in the first quarter on a run of two yds. In the second quarter Frankie Kuehn grabbed a pass and romped 35 yds. to score. Both extra points were no good. In the third quarter Kuehn broke off tackle for 45 yds. and 6 points. In the 4th quarter Shong went for 8 yds. and the last touchdown to make the final score 26-0.

BEAVERS TRIP GALESVILLE 21-12

Augusta came back from a 6-6 tie to score two touchdowns and a safety to beat Galesville 21-12. Kuehn went over from the two for the first touchdown to make it 6-0. In the second half Kuehn caught a pass and raced 17 yds. to make the score 12-6. Then Kling and Lowman blocked a punt in the end zone to run the score to 15-6. In the 4th quarter Shong raced over from the one to make the final score 21-12.

BEAVERS BLAST BLACKRIVER

In a hard fought game which saw few long runs Augusta whipped B. R. F. 16-0. Kuehn scored Augusta's first touchdown going over from the 5 yd. line. In the same half B. R. F. Krohn was tackled in the end zone for a safety, the 2nd one in 2 games for the Beavers.

RAIDERS HALT AUGUSTA

Arcadias Red Raiders led by Berjenski stopped Augusta by a score of 32-12. Berzinski raced for touchdowns on punts of 72, 40, 12, and 5 yds. The Beavers down 19-0 at the half came back to score two touchdowns. The first on a 60 yds. gallop by Frank Kuehn, the second on a pass from Rudolph to Kling covering 30 yds.

AUGUSTA 13-MONDOVI 0

After suffering their first defeat in the Conference, Augusta rebounded to beat Mondovi 13-0. In the first half the play was rather even and it was deadlocked at the end of the 1st half. The beginning of the third quarter Dayle Bauch grabbed a Mondovi pass and raced 35 yds. to score. In the fourth quarter the Beavers drove 60 yds. to score. Kuehn capping the drive with a ten-yard sweep around end.

BEAVERS WIN HOMECOMING

The Augusta Beavers came back from a 6-0 defeat at half time to beat Osseo 7-6. Frank Kuehn returned a punt 25 yds. to Osseo's 35 yd. line. From there they marched to where Rudolph scored and Shong ran for the extra point on a fake kick, and that was the game. This was the last home game for the Seniors and the win landed it a big success--the Homecoming was a big success.

BEAVERS RIP DURAND 26-6

Augusta drove to a second-half win over Durand in the last game of the year. After settling for a 7-6 halftime lead, the Beavers came back to score three touchdowns. Frank (Jig) Kuehn raced for three touchdowns in the third quarter on a dazzling 85 yard run, the second in the third quarter on a 20 yard run, and the third one in the fourth quarter, good for 30 yards, after taking a lateral from Kling.

BASKETBALL SEASON '51-52

Augusta opened the 1951-52 basketball season with four lettermen back from last year's team. These veterans were Howie Kling, a forward last year converted to center this year, Wayne Shong, Neil Dickinson, and Bob Schroeder. Along with Dayle Bauch they formed the nucleus of one of the finest teams turned out by Augusta in recent years.

After opening the season with wins over Central and Black River Falls, they were defeated by a tall Osseo team. As the season wore on the team improved with each game, and with no particular player standing out, but with fine teamwork, and good shooting by all the players they continued to win. Reaching their peak at Durand where they won by the highest score recorded by an Augusta team 82-46.

At the end of the season Augusta faced a strong Black River Falls team needing a victory to finish in a tie for the Championship. The team arose to the occasion by beating them 48-41.

In non-conference play they defeated a strong Thorp team which had been weakened by illness, but still had enough to make the game interesting. They also defeated Central twice and were beaten by Altoona once.

As a whole the team had a very successful season, being co-champions in the Mississippi Valley Conference along with Osseo and beating non-conference foes that we had never beaten before by an Augusta team. While doing this they compiled a record of 13 wins against 3 defeats by the end of the season.

Congratulations team!
